4. Prohibited or Restricted Imports and Exports

1/ No person may import, export or transit prohibited goods.

2/ No person may import, export or transit restricted goods unless in compliance with the requirements of the restriction.

PART TWO

PRINCIPLES OF CUSTOMS OPERATIONS

5. General

The customs operations shall:

1/ promote a self-assessment system whereby importers and exporters present the value of goods and pay duties and taxes by themselves;

2/ be based on the principles of risk management, transparency and accountability and create a conducive environment to provide equitable, expeditious, predictable and reliable services in the exercise of customs control;

3/ promote and support manufacturing industry and economic development;

4/ provide clear information to the customers and be based on the use of internationally accepted information technology systems through which information is gathered, analysed, used and stored in the course of cooperation and consultation among concerned bodies;
5/ prevent illegal practices by promoting self-compliance.

6. Risk Management
1/ The customs facilitation service and control shall classify the risk level of import, export and transit goods and be carried out with striking balance between facilitation and control which shall be based on a criteria substantiated by information.

2/ Activities performed and decisions passed by the Authority with respect to release of goods, control, compliance management and facilitation shall take the principles of risk management into account.

3/ The Authority may employ audit based control and other methods of control to take appropriate measures on such irregularities identified after decision on facilitation is provided in accordance with principles of risk management.

4/ The Authority shall issue directive regarding the risk level of import, export and transit goods.

7. Customs Approved Treatment or Use of Goods

1/ Customs approved treatment or use of goods shall be applied in accordance with standards prescribed by this Proclamation without any discrimination as to the nature, quantity, origin, and destination or shipment conditions of the goods.

2/ Sub-article (1) of this Article may not be applicable if such application is contrary to any measure taken for the protection of public morality, the protection of health and life of humans, animals or plants, the protection of historical and cultural heritages, or other specific treatment or use of goods provided by law.
PART THREE
CUSTOMS PROCEDURE

CHAPTER ONE
GOODS DECLARATION

8. Declarant

1/ Any person having the right to dispose of the goods shall be entitled to act as declarant, and shall be entitled to be represented by a customs clearing agent.

2/ The declarant shall be held responsible for the completeness and accuracy of the particulars given in the goods declaration and the payment of the duties and taxes.

3/ Before lodging the goods declaration the declarant shall be allowed, under such conditions as may be laid down in a directive issued by the Authority, to inspect the goods and to draw samples.

4/ A separate goods declaration may not be required in respect of samples allowed to be drawn, provided that such samples are included in the goods declaration concerning the relevant consignment.

9. Forms of Goods Declaration

1/ Goods declaration may be made in writing form, orally, by bodily action or electronically.

2/ Goods declaration to be presented in written form or electronically shall be filled and signed in the form prescribed by the Authority and shall contain the particulars only necessary for completing customs formalities.

10. Supporting Documents of Goods Declaration

1/ On the presentation of goods declaration made in written or electronic form, original copies of the following supporting documents or electronic copies shall be submitted as required by the Authority:

a) transportation document;
b) invoice;
c) bank permit;
d) packing list;
e) certificate of origin; and
f) other documents necessary to ensure compliance with customs laws and prescribed by directive issued by the Authority.

2/ Where there are adequate reasons, the Authority may accept only copies of the supporting documents listed under sub article (1) of this Article.

3/ Transportation documents that are required in support of export goods shall be a document that is used as evidence for the cost of transportation of goods up to the customs port of exit.

4/ Where supporting documents cannot be presented to customs on time for adequate reasons, the Authority may, upon requiring a guarantee, allow the documents to be presented within the time to be specified by directive of the Authority after providing the service.

5/ Supporting documents and goods declaration shall constitute a single indivisible legal instrument upon acceptance of the declaration.

6/ The Authority may require any supporting document presented in a foreign language to be translated into Amharic or into English by an official translator.

11. Allowing Provisional Goods Declaration

1/ Where, for reasons deemed valid by the Authority, the declarant does not have all the information required to make the goods declaration, a provisional goods declaration shall be allowed to be lodged, provided that it contains the particulars deemed necessary by the Authority for the assessment of customs duties and that the declarant undertakes to produce final goods declaration within a specified period.

2/ If the Authority allows the presentation of a provisional goods declaration, the tariff treatment to be accorded to the goods may not be different from that which would have been accorded had a complete and correct goods declaration been lodged in the first instance.

3/ The Authority shall issue directive for the proper application of the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article.
12. Goods Subject to Goods Declaration

1/ Without prejudice to the provisions of other laws, any import, export or transit goods shall be subject to goods declaration.

2/ Any goods in respect of which goods declaration is presented shall, in the declaration, be identified as:

a) durable or duty free, if entered for home use or under duty draw back import regime;

b) out right export or temporary export, if entered for export;

c) imported for inward processing and whether there is duty draw back;

d) exported for outward processing and whether the import is for home use or whether there is duty draw back; or

e) temporarily imported without payment of duties and taxes.

3/ The Authority may, by directive, allow certain goods to complete customs formalities without lodging goods declaration in written form or electronically depending on their nature or use.

13. Acceptance of Goods Declaration

1/ A goods declaration shall be deemed to be accepted when the declaration and supporting documents enumerated under Article 10(1) of this Proclamation has been registered in the customs database and verified by the Authority for completeness and accuracy.

2/ Verification of goods declaration shall be effected immediately after its presentation.

3/ Any error that makes goods declaration or supporting documents incomplete or defective shall be rectified by the declarant before having the goods declaration registered.
Notwithstanding the provision of sub-article (3) of this Article errors committed, after presentation of goods declaration, with fraudulent intent or gross negligence shall entail penalty in accordance with this Proclamation.

When the Authority rejects the goods declaration, it shall state the reasons to the declarant in writing.

Amendment of Declaration

1. The declarant may amend one or more of the particulars of a goods declaration already presented; provided, however, that such amendment may not have the effect of rendering the declaration applicable to goods other than those originally declared.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of sub article (1) of this Article, any amendment may not be made, unless authorized by the Authority for good cause, after the Authority has informed the declarant that it intends to examine the documents or goods or it has established that the particulars are incorrect.

Cancellation of Declaration

1. Where the declarant fails to proceed with the customs formalities within five working days after the presentation of a goods declaration or after completion of the preparation of an assessment notice, the goods declaration may be cancelled.

2. Goods declaration may be cancelled upon the request of the declarant, where it is proved that the declaration has been presented contrary to the provisions of this Proclamation or any appropriate customs procedure and payment has not yet been effected.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (2) of this Article, the request for cancellation may not be permitted after release of the goods.

4. The Authority may allow cancellation of the goods declaration on good cause prior to the payment of the duty and tax.

5. Allowing the cancellation of goods declaration pursuant to this Article may not exonerate the declarant from a penalty that may be imposed in accordance with this Proclamation.
CHAPTER TWO

CUSTOMS TRANSIT AND TRANSHIPMENT

16. General

1/ The Authority shall allow goods to be transported under customs control in the customs territory:

a) from a customs station of entry to a customs station of exit;

b) from a customs station of entry to an inland customs station;

c) from an inland customs station to a customs station of exit; or

d) from one inland customs stations to another inland customs station.

2/ Goods being carried under customs transit may not be subject to the payment of duties and taxes, provided the conditions laid down by the Authority are complied with and that any security required has been furnished.

3/ The declarant and the carrier shall jointly and severally be responsible for ensuring that the goods are produced intact at the customs station of destination in accordance with the conditions imposed by the Authority.

4/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article, the Authority may, when it is satisfied that the conditions laid down by its directive are met, authorize:

a) a consignee to receive goods directly at his premises without having to present them at the customs station of destination; or

b) a consignor to send goods directly from his premises without having to present them at the customs station of departure.

17. Goods Declaration for Customs Transit

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 12(1) of this Proclamation, any commercial or transport document setting out clearly the necessary particulars may be accepted as the descriptive part of the goods declaration for customs transit and such acceptance shall be noted on the document.
18. Sealing and Identification of Consignments

1/ The customs station of departure shall take all necessary action to enable the customs station of destination to identify the consignment and to detect any unauthorized interference.

2/ When a consignment is conveyed in a transport-unit and customs sealing is required, the customs seals shall be affixed to the transport-unit itself provided that the transport-unit is so constructed and equipped that:

   a) customs seals can be simply and effectively affixed to it;

   b) no goods can be removed from or introduced into the sealed part of the transport-unit without leaving visible traces of tampering or without breaking the customs seal;

   c) it contains no concealed spaces where goods may be hidden; and

   d) all spaces capable of holding goods are readily accessible for customs inspection.

3/ The Authority may decide whether a transport-unit is secure for the purposes of customs transit.

4/ Where the accompanying documents make it possible unequivocally to identify the goods, such goods may be transported without a customs seal or fastening unless:

   a) the customs station considers it necessary in the light of risk management;

   b) it is required to facilitate the customs transit operation as a whole; or

   c) an international agreement so provides.
5/ If a consignment is, in principle, to be conveyed under customs seal and the transport-unit cannot be effectively sealed, identification shall be assured and unauthorized interference rendered readily detectable by:
a) full examination of the goods and recording the results thereof on the transit document;
b) affixing customs seals or fastenings to individual packages;
c) a precise description of the goods by reference to samples, plans, sketches, photographs, or similar means, to be attached to the transit document;
d) stipulation of a strict routing and strict time limits; or
e) customs escort.

6/ When the Authority fix a time limit for customs transit under paragraph (d) of sub-article (5) of this Article, it shall be sufficient for the purposes of the transit operation. Such time limit may be extended at the request of the declarant or the carrier, and for reasons deemed valid by the Authority.

7/ The Authority shall require goods to follow a prescribed itinerary or to be transported under customs escort in accordance with paragraph (d) or (e) of sub-article (5) of this Article when it considers such a measure to be indispensable for the purpose of customs control.

8/ The decision to waive sealing of a transport-unit under this Article shall be the prerogative of the Authority.

19. Customs Seals

1/ Customs seals and fastenings used in the application of customs transit shall fulfill the requirements stipulated by directive of the Authority.

2/ Customs seals and identification marks affixed by foreign customs shall be accepted for the purposes of the customs transit operation unless:
a) they are considered not to be sufficient;
b) they are not secure; or
21. Termination of Customs Transit

1/ For the purpose of termination of a customs transit operation, the goods and the relevant goods declaration shall be presented to the customs station of destination within the time limit fixed, without the goods having undergone any change and without having been used, and with customs seals, fastenings or identification marks intact.

2/ The customs station of destination shall, as soon as the goods are placed under its control, arrange without delay for the termination of the customs transit operation after having satisfied itself that all conditions have been met.
22. Transshipment

1/ Transshipment of goods may be allowed upon request submitted by the importer, carrier or by the customs agent.

2/ Any commercial or transport document setting out clearly the necessary particulars shall be accepted as the goods declaration for the application of this Article.

3/ When the Authority considers it necessary, it shall take precautionary measure at importation to ensure that the goods to be transshipped shall be identifiable at exportation and that unauthorized interference shall be readily detectable.

4/ The Authority may fix a sufficient time limit for the exportation of goods declared for transshipment.

5/ Goods admitted to transshipment may not be subjected to the payment of duties and taxes.

CHAPTER THREE
CUSTOMS PROCEDURES FOR CLEARANCE OF GOODS

23. Examination of Documents and Goods

1/ The Authority may, to ensure that goods to be released are covered by a registered declaration, examine the goods and take samples for examination and analysis.

2/ The declarant shall be entitled to be present when the goods are examined or samples are taken: provided, however, that if he fails to appear, the Authority shall proceed to conduct the examination or to take the samples in the presence of the warehouse operator.

3/ The cost of transport of the goods to the place where they are examined or samples are taken, the cost of taking samples and the cost of examination as well as any expense related thereto shall be borne by the declarant.
24. Placing Identification Mark on Goods

1/ The Authority shall place identification mark on the goods where identification is required in order to ensure compliance with the procedure for which the goods have been declared.

2/ The identification mark affixed to the goods or the means of transport shall be removed or destroyed by the Authority or by a person authorized by the Authority except in the case of force majeure to be determined by directive of the Authority, where their removal or destruction is essential to ensure the protection of the goods or means of transport.

25. Release of Goods

1/ Goods declared shall be released as soon as they are examined by the Authority or the Authority decided not to examine them, provided that:

a) they are not subject to prohibition or an offence is committed in relation to them;

b) where the conditions of placing the goods under the customs procedure in question are fulfilled;

c) in the case of restricted goods, the permit issued by the appropriate body pursuant to the relevant law is presented; and

4/ The Authority may not be liable for payment of any compensation to the declarant for samples taken in compliance with customs law.

5/ Where only parts of the goods covered by the goods declaration are examined the result of such examination shall apply to all goods indicated by the declaration.

6/ Where the declarant considers that the result or partial examination is not valid as regards the remainder of the goods, he may request further examination of the goods and shall cover the expenses incurred by such examination.

7/ Where the goods declaration is not made subject to verification, the customs formalities shall be applied based on the particulars stated in the declarations.

8/ Goods that meet the conditions specified in the directive issued by the Authority may be given priority in undergoing customs procedure.
26. Replacement and Compensatory Goods

1/ Goods imported for home use may be allowed to be re-exported and replaced within one year from the date of importation without additional payment of duties and taxes upon the request of the importer if they are incompatible to their intended purpose due to defect, error of consignment or their incompleteness.

2/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article, if the Authority is convinced that the goods found to be incompatible to their intended purpose due to defect, error of consignment or their incompleteness cannot be re-exported before the replacement goods are imported, it may allow the importation of the replacement goods without payment of duties and taxes upon submission of a guarantee for the re-export of the goods within a certain period of time or, if such goods cannot be used for any other purpose, after their delivery to the Authority.

3/ Where it is ascertained by sufficient evidence that goods imported for home use are less than the quantity stated in the goods declaration, the Authority may allow the remaining goods to be imported or refund the amount of tax and duties paid on the remaining goods.

d) any applicable duties and taxes have been paid or security is furnished.

2/ The Authority may, in accordance with a directive issued by the Ministry, release goods upon receiving a guarantee from the importer to secure payment of the taxes and duties within a certain period of time; provided, however, that the period of such deferred payment may not exceed 12 months.

3/ Where samples are taken and technical documents and expert advice is required to determine taxes and duties, the Authority may release the goods with security before the results of such examination are known.

4/ All the goods covered by a declaration shall be released at the same time unless the condition requires otherwise.
Release of Goods for Free Circulation

1. Unless otherwise provided by law, any goods may not be released before the payment of duties and taxes.

2. Any imported goods that have completed the necessary customs formalities and released for free circulation shall be considered as domestic goods.

3. Goods released for free circulation shall lose the status of domestic goods where:

   a) the goods declaration for their release for free circulation is invalidated;

   b) they are imported for inward processing and treated under the duty draw back or voucher scheme;

   c) they have to be re-exported in accordance with the terms of the contract due to the fact that they are defective or fail to meet the required standards; or

   d) they are re-exported or used only for the permitted purpose and subject to drawback system.

Pre-arrival Clearance

1. The importer or his agent may lodge his declaration with supporting documents prior to the arrival of the goods and may request for a pre-arrival clearance to be issued upon examination of the declaration and supporting documents.

2. The Authority may examine the declaration and supporting documents presented to it prior to the arrival of the goods and issue release of goods right upon their arrival.

Clearance Subsequent to Release of Goods

The Authority may release goods prior to the completion of customs formalities if it is satisfied that the declarant can subsequently accomplish all the custom formalities; provided, however, that the declarant produces a commercial or official document containing the main particulars of the consignment concerned and acceptable to the Authority, and that security, where required, has been furnished to ensure collection of any applicable duties and taxes.
CHAPTER FOUR
CUSTOMS PROCEDURE FOR TRAVELERS

30. Goods Declaration by Travelers

1/ A traveler may be permitted to make an oral declaration in respect of the goods carried by him; provided, however, that a written or electronic declaration shall be required for goods carried by a traveler which constitute an importation or exportation of a commercial nature.

2/ A traveler on arrival may be allowed to make a declaration by choosing between the following types of channel:

   a) a channel, identified by green symbol, that is for the use of travelers carrying goods in quantities or values not exceeding those admissible duty-free and which are not subject to import prohibitions or restrictions; or

   b) a channel, identified by red symbol, that is for the use of travelers carrying goods in quantities or values exceeding those admissible duty-free or which are subject to import prohibitions or restrictions.

3/ The Authority, in co-operation with other relevant bodies, may use internationally standardized advance passenger information, where available, in order to facilitate the customs control of travelers and the clearance of goods carried by them.

31. Storage of Goods Carried by Travelers

Goods carried by travelers shall be stored, subject to the conditions prescribed by the Authority, pending clearance under the appropriate customs procedure, re-exportation or other disposal in accordance with this Proclamation:

1/ at the traveler's request;

2/ when the goods concerned cannot be cleared immediately; or 3/ where the other provisions of this Chapter do not apply to such goods.

32. Unaccompanied Baggage

1/ A baggage arriving or leaving before or after the traveler shall be cleared under the procedure applicable to accompanied baggage or under another simplified customs procedure.

2/ Any authorized person shall be allowed to present unaccompanied baggage for clearance on behalf of the traveler.

33. Non-Commercial Goods and Personal Effects

1/ Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary under Part Four of this Proclamation, a system of flat-rate assessment of duties and taxes may, where appropriate, be applied to non-commercial goods imported or exported by travelers.

2/ Travelers shall be allowed to import or export personal effects free of duties and taxes.

3/ Returning residents shall be permitted to re-import free of duties and taxes personal effects which they took with them at the time of their departure and which were in free circulation in the customs territory.

4/ Where it is necessary to lodge a temporary admission declaration for non-residents' personal effects, the Authority may fix the time limit for the re-exportation of such personal effects by reference to the length of the traveler's stay in the customs territory.

5/ The Authority may, at the request of the traveler on the basis of valid reasons, may extend the time limit fixed pursuant to sub-article (4) of this Article.

6/ The conditions under which travelers entering or leaving the customs territory may use their private means of transport shall be determined by directive to be issued by the Authority.

7/ A non-resident traveler may re-export temporarily admitted personal effects through a customs port other than that through which they were imported.
8/ The Authority may not require the re-exportation of personal effects of a non-resident traveler which have been destroyed or seriously damaged due to accident or force majeure.

34. Transit Travelers
Transit travelers who do not leave the transit area may not be required to pass through any customs control; provided, however, that the Authority may maintain general surveillance of transit areas and take any action necessary when a customs offence is suspected.

35. Information Concerning the Customs Facilities Applicable to Travelers
The Authority shall make available, through the appropriate means, information concerning the customs facilities applicable to travelers in the Amharic and English languages.

CHAPTER FIVE
CUSTOMS PROCEDURE FOR IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION OF GOODS THROUGH THE POSTAL SYSTEM

36. Customs Control
Goods imported or exported through the postal system shall be subject to customs control.

37. Duty to Report
Any person authorized to provide postal services shall report by means of a manifest or in any other approved manner, all goods arriving or departing through the postal system and shall present such goods to a customs officer for clearance.

38. Postal Goods Declaration
1/ Where any form completed by the sender, label affixed or supporting documents produced in respect of goods imported or to be exported through the postal system shows that:

a) the goods have a value not exceeding the value determined by the Authority;

b) importation or exportation of the goods does not require certification; and
c) the imported goods do not require to be placed under a different procedure other than the customs procedure applicable to goods for home use; such form, label or supporting documents shall be considered as an acceptable declaration for the purpose of customs formalities.

2/ A separate goods declaration shall be required for goods imported or to be exported through the postal system and are not covered by the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article.

39. Delegation

The Authority may delegate postal service providers to collect duties and taxes on goods imported and exported through the postal system.

CHAPTER SIX

CUSTOMS PROCEDURE APPLICABLE TO MEANS OF TRANSPORT FOR COMMERCIAL USE AND STORES

40. Temporary Admission of Means of Transport for Commercial Use

1/ Any means of transport for commercial use, whether loaded or not, shall be allowed to be brought temporarily into the customs territory relieved from payment of duties and taxes, provided that:

a) it is not used for internal transport in the customs territory; and

b) it is intended for re-exportation without having undergone any change except normal depreciation due to its use, normal consumption of lubricants and fuel and necessary repairs.

2/ The Authority may require security for temporary admission of means of transport for commercial use duly registered abroad when it considers it essential for the purposes of customs control.

3/ The Authority may fix a time limit for the re-exportation of means of transport for commercial use, taking into account all the circumstances of the transport operations intended.
4/ The Authority may, at the request of the person concerned and for reasons deemed valid, extend the period fixed pursuant to sub-article (3) of this Article.

41. Temporary Admission of Parts and Equipment

1/ Special equipment for the loading, unloading, handling or protection of cargo, whether or not it is capable of being used separately from the means of transport for commercial use, which is imported with the means of transport for commercial use and is intended to be re-exported therewith, shall be allowed to be brought temporarily into the customs territory relieved from payment of import duties and taxes.

2/ Parts and equipment which are to be used, in the course of repair or maintenance, as replacements for parts and equipment incorporated in or used on a means of transport for commercial use already temporarily imported into the customs territory, shall be allowed to be brought temporarily into the customs territory relieved from payment of duties and taxes; provided, however, that the importer shall re-export or handover the replaced part to the Authority.

42. Declaration of Arrival

The Authority may require the lodging of a declaration of arrival of a means of transport for commercial use containing the particulars necessary to ensure compliance with the customs law.

43. Customs Procedures for Departure

1/ Customs procedures applicable upon the departure of means of transport for commercial use may, as appropriate, include:

a) the lodging of a declaration of departure with the Authority;

b) the affixing of customs seals;

c) the designation of a specified customs route; and

d) the taking of measures for monitoring unauthorized delay in the departure.

2/ A means of transport for commercial use shall also be permitted to depart from the customs territory through a customs station other than that through which it arrived.
44. Stores on Board Arriving Aircraft or Train

1/ Stores for consumption by the passengers and the crew of an aircraft or train arriving in the customs territory or stores necessary for the operation and maintenance of the aircraft or the train which are on board such means of transport shall be exempted from import duties and taxes provided that they remain on board.

2/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article, stores for consumption by the passengers and the crew imported as provisions on international express trains shall be exempted from import duties and taxes provided that:

a) such goods are purchased in the countries crossed by the international train in question; and

b) any duties and taxes chargeable on such goods in the country where they were purchased are paid.

3/ The Authority may not require the presentation of a separate declaration of stores remaining on board the aircraft or the train.

4/ When an aircraft is to land at one or more airports in the customs territory, the issue of stores, free of duties and taxes, shall be allowed for consumption on board both during the stay of the aircraft at such intermediate airports and during its flight between such airports.

5/ The Authority may require the carrier to take appropriate measures to prevent any unauthorized use of the goods including sealing of the stores, when necessary.

6/ The Authority may require the removal of stores from the aircraft or train for storage elsewhere during its stay in the customs territory when it considers it necessary.

45. Supply of Stores

1/ An aircraft which depart for an ultimate foreign destination shall be entitled to take on board, exempted from duties and taxes:

a) stores in such quantities as the Authority deem reasonable having regard to the number of the passengers and the crew, to the length of the flight and to any quantities of such stores already on board;
b) stores for consumption necessary for its operation and maintenance, in such quantities as are deemed reasonable for operation and maintenance during the flight having regard also to any quantities of such stores already on board.

2/ Replenishment of stores exempted from duties and taxes shall be allowed for an aircraft which has arrived in the customs territory and which needs to replenish its stores for the journey to its final destination in the customs territory.

3/ The Authority shall allow stores for consumption supplied to an aircraft during its stay in the customs territory to be issued under the same conditions as are applicable in this Chapter to stores for consumption held on board arriving aircraft.

4/ The Authority may require a declaration of stores taken on board aircraft upon departure from the customs territory, containing minimum information necessary for the purpose of customs control.

46. Other Disposal of Stores

Stores on board aircraft or train having arrived in the customs territory shall be allowed:

1/ to be cleared for home use or to be placed under another customs procedure, subject to compliance with the conditions and formalities applicable in each case; or

2/ subject to prior authorization by the Authority, to be transferred respectively to other aircraft or train in international traffic.

CHAPTER SEVEN

CONSIGNMENT FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF

47. Emergency Relief Consignment

For the purpose of this Chapter, “emergency relief consignment” may include goods, vehicles and other means of transport, foodstuffs, medicaments, clothing, blankets, tents, prefabricated houses, water purifying and water storage items, and other goods of prime necessity, forwarded as aid, upon the request of the appropriate government body, to those affected by disaster.
50. Warehousing of Goods

Chapter Eight

Customs Warehouse Procedure

Exemption from Duties and Taxes

The Authority may conduct examination or sampling of goods, make an entry, and declare the goods for import or export. Goods declared for export or transit shall be carried out as a matter of priority. The Authority may allow:

a) lodging of simplified goods declaration subject to the final goods declaration within a specified period;

b) lodging, checking, and registering of the goods with supporting documents prior to the arrival of the goods, and their release upon clearance outside the designated hours of business or away from customs stations and the waiver of any changes in this context.

c) clearance of emergency relief consignments for emergency relief consignments.

d) clearance of emergency relief consignments for temporary customs warehousing and the goods, and their release upon decision of the appropriate government body, free of duties and taxes, otherwise payable.

Goods arriving at any customs port shall be deposited in temporary customs storage or bonded customs warehouse.

2. Particulars of goods stored in temporary customs storage shall be registered in the warehouse register.
5.1. Time Limit of Storage in Customs Warehouses

1. Goods to be deposited in a bonded customs warehouse shall be entered under temporary storage and presented to the Authority for approval.

2. Goods imported by using air transport and stored in a temporary customs storage will undergo customs procedures and be removed within 60 days from the date of storage.

3. Any commercial good other than goods in a duty free shop stored in customs bonded warehouse shall undergo customs procedures and be removed within 30 days from the date of storage.

4. Goods stored in warehouses under temporary storage shall be that used for the intended use. Goods stored in warehouses for the purpose of temporary storage shall be used in a bonded customs warehouse for the purpose of temporary storage. Where delivery of the goods to the intended warehouse has not been made, the warehouse shall be non-delivery to the Authority.

5. Goods which constitute a hazard which are likely to affect other goods or which require special warehouses shall be accepted only by customs warehouses specially designed to receive them.

6. The commercial document as the document to non-delivery of goods is required to place the goods under temporary storage.
4/ Any machinery, equipment and input to be used for producing goods for domestic consumption and stored in custom bonded warehouse shall undergo customs formalities and be removed within one year from the date of storage.

5/ Goods owned by a person who is permitted to use bonded warehouse but mistakenly stored in temporary customs storage shall, within 12 working days, be transferred to the bonded warehouse.

6/ Goods stored in temporary customs storage or bonded warehouse may not be kept for more than 7 working days after the completion of customs formalities.

7/ Goods stored in temporary customs storage or bonded warehouse and not removed within the time limit specified in sub-article (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) of this Article shall be transferred to government customs warehouse.

8/ If the owner of goods transferred to government customs warehouse pursuant to sub-article (7) of this Article pays the taxes and duties payable and other costs prior to their disposal, he shall have the right to take the goods within 7 working days from the date of such payment.

9/ Where the permit granted for a temporary customs storage or bonded warehouse is cancelled before the expiry of the time limit prescribed for storage of goods, the goods shall be transferred to another temporary customs storage or bonded warehouse for the remaining time of storage.

10/ Any expense for transferring goods to another customs warehouse pursuant to sub-article (7) of this Article shall be covered by the owner of the storage whose permit has been cancelled.

11/ The Authority may, for good cause, allow extension of the time limit provided for in this Article.

52. Removal of Goods from Customs Warehouse

1/ Goods stored in temporary customs storage or a bonded customs warehouse may not be removed from such warehouse except in accordance with the customs law and upon due entry for any of the following purposes as may be appropriate:
53. Goods Found in Excess of Entry

1/ Without prejudice to the provision of Article 143 (2) of this Proclamation where the operator of a temporary customs storage or bonded customs warehouse finds goods in excess of entry in the goods declaration, cargo manifest or transit documents, he shall immediately report the excess to the branch of the Authority having received the goods declaration.

2/ The duties and taxes in respect of excess goods reported pursuant to sub-article (1) of this Article shall be paid forthwith.

54. Operations Permitted in Customs Warehouse

The Authority may, subject to such safeguards as it may consider necessary, authorize the owner, possessor or person having control over goods stored in temporary customs storage to make operations necessary for the preservation of the goods or repacking, breaking bulk or grouping of packages.

55. Goods Taken for Sample

1/ Samples of goods stored in a customs warehouse may be removed from the warehouse in a quantity sufficient to:

a) ascertain the type and the material content of goods to classify them under the proper tariff headings;
b) ascertain the type, quality and origin of goods for valuation purpose;

c) satisfy a court or police order requiring the presentation of sample for inspection;

d) ascertain the price indicated on the invoice is actually related to the specified item;

e) other purposes determined by the Director General of the Authority.

2/ Goods removed as sample shall be returned in the same quantity and condition as soon as the purpose for which they are taken out is fulfilled; provided, however, that where it is not possible to return them due to their nature or due to their being used for analysis, it shall be presumed as they are warehoused for the purpose of assessment of duties, taxes and other charges.

56. Customs Control on Customs Warehouses

1/ Any customs warehouse and goods deposited in the warehouse shall be under customs control.

2/ No person, other than authorized by the Authority, may enter a customs warehouse.

3/ Customs control on customs warehouse and goods deposited in customs warehouse shall include any measure taken to ascertain the following:

a) the registration and periodical reporting, in accordance with the manner specified by the Authority, of goods stored in and cleared from a customs warehouse;

b) the transfer of goods referred to in Article 51(7) of this Proclamation to government customs warehouse;

c) the segregation of goods stored in a customs warehouse on the basis of their type and nature to enable their safe storage and accessibility for customs control;

d) the customs warehouse is operated in accordance with the permit given with respect to it.
57. Transfer of Goods to Government Customs Warehouse

1/ The operator of a temporary customs storage warehouse where goods to be transferred to government customs warehouse in accordance with Article 51(7) of this Proclamation are stored shall transfer the goods to:

a) government customs warehouse; or

b) any other storage place designated by the Authority.

2/ Where the operator referred to in sub-article (1) of this Article fails to transfer the goods to the government customs warehouse or to the storage place designated by the Authority, the Authority may:

a) itself transfer the goods at the cost of the warehouse operator;

b) decide the goods to remain in such warehouse subject to certain conditions prescribed by the Authority.

3/ Where goods are seized due to contravention of customs law, the Authority may:

a) transfer the goods to government customs warehouse; or

b) decide the goods to remain in business premises where they are stored.

4/ The storage place where goods are transferred pursuant to sub-article (1) (b) of this Article or the warehouse or business premises where goods are stored pursuant to sub-article (2) (b) or (3) (b) of this Article shall be deemed to be a government customs warehouse with respect to such goods.

5/ The person in charge of the warehouse, storage place or business premises deemed to be a government customs warehouse pursuant to sub-article (4) of this Article shall be responsible for the safety of the goods as well as for the duties and taxes thereon.

www.chilot.me
2/ The Authority shall take and keep copies documents relating to the importation or exportation and carriage of the goods.

59. Warehouse Fee

1/ Warehouse fees shall be calculated as follows:

a) for goods stored in a temporary customs storage or bonded customs warehouse, established for rental use, from the date of deposit until released upon completion of customs procedures or their transfer to another customs warehouse;

b) for goods stored in government customs warehouse:

(1) if they are forfeited upon seizure due to contravention of the customs law or forfeited due to being abandoned by the owner, from the date of sales until the buyer takes delivery of them;

(2) if they are disposed otherwise than by sale or donation upon being seized and forfeited due to contravention of the customs law, from the date of deposit until disposal;

(3) if they are stored in the warehouse pursuant to Article 51(7) of this Proclamation, from the date of deposit until released upon completion of customs procedures or until the buyer takes delivery of them in case of sale.
2/ The rate of customs warehouse fees shall be determined by regulation of the Council of Ministers.

3/ Seized goods that could not be released against security shall be exempted from warehouse charge from the date of seizure until released by a final decision in accordance with this Proclamation. Such goods shall be removed from the warehouse within two months from the date the final decision for their release is rendered.

4/ If goods that could not be released against security are stored in a licensed customs warehouse, they shall be transferred and stored in government customs warehouse.

60. Transfer of Ownership of Goods in Customs Warehouse

1/ The Authority may permit transfer of ownership to another person while the goods are stored in customs warehouse.

2/ Without prejudice to Article 130 of this Proclamation, the person to whom ownership of goods stored in customs warehouse is transferred shall have the obligation to observe the obligations and restrictions imposed on the previous owner by virtue of the law or contract in connection with goods as well as decisions rendered in accordance with the law.

61. Disposal of Abandoned Goods

1/ Goods abandoned by the owner in writing before the expiry of the period stipulated under Article 51 (1), (2) or (3) of this Proclamation and not related to a contravention of customs law shall be disposed by the Authority:
   a) by way of sale if they have market value; or
   b) by other means to be determined by directive of the Authority if they have no market value.

2/ Goods transferred to government customs warehouse pursuant to Article 51 (7) of this Proclamation and not related to a contravention of customs law shall, without prejudice to Article 51 (5), be disposed by the Authority:
62. Disposal of Forfeited Goods

1/ Goods forfeited in accordance with this Proclamation shall be disposed by the Authority:

a) by way of sale if they have market value; or

b) by other means to be determined by directive of the Authority if they have no market value.

2/ Notwithstanding the provision of sub-article (1) (a) of this Article, the Authority:

a) shall transfer goods classified as cultural heritage by the relevant law or goods that the Ministry determines to be used by public bodies to the appropriate government body;

b) may transfer goods to be used for humanitarian aid to the appropriate charity organizations.

63. Procedures of Sale

1/ Sale of goods in accordance with Article 61 or Article 62 of this Proclamation shall follow auction or open tender procedures or sale through a public enterprise.

2/ The Authority shall provide the buyer of goods sold pursuant to sub-article (1) of this Article with evidence that enable transfer of ownership.

64. Proceeds of Sale and Cost of Disposal

1/ The proceeds obtained from the sale of goods under Article 61(1) (a) or Article 62 (1) (a) of this Proclamation shall, after deducting expenses incurred by the Authority in relation to the goods, be paid to the government.

2/ The proceeds obtained from the sale of goods under Article 61(2)(a) of this Proclamation shall, after deducting:

a) duties and taxes;
b) expenses incurred by the Authority in relation to the goods;

c) the warehouse fee and transportation expenses; and

d) interest calculated at bank lending rate on the amounts referred to under paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this sub-article; in the preceding order be paid to the owner of the goods.

3/ If the amount of refund referred to in sub-article (2) of this Article is not claimed by the owner of the goods within six months from the date of sale of the goods, it shall be surrendered to the government.

4/ The Authority shall have the right to claim reimbursement of the costs of disposal of goods under Article 61(1) (b) or (2) (b) or Article 62(1) (b) of this Proclamation from the owner of the goods or from the offender, as the case may be.

CHAPTER NINE

CUSTOMS PROCEDURE FOR INWARD OR OUTWARD PROCESSING

65. Inward Processing

1/ The authorization of temporary importation of goods for manufacturing or processing and the exportation of compensating products resulting thereof shall be governed by the Export Trade Duty Incentive Schemes.

2/ Goods may be temporarily imported for repair at home.

3/ Goods temporarily imported pursuant to sub-article (2) of this Article shall be re-exported within six months from the date of their importation; provided, however, that the Authority may authorize the extension of such period where necessary.

66. Outward Processing

1/ Goods may, upon authorization by the Authority in accordance with directive of the Ministry, be
3/ The method of calculation of duties and taxes payable under sub-article (1) of this Article shall be prescribed by directive of the Ministry; provided, however, that the duties and taxes relating to compensating products resulting from repairing shall be calculated on the basis of cost of the repair.

67. Duties and Taxes

1/ The temporary export of goods for outward processing shall be exempt for payment of duties and taxes; provided, however, that the duty and tax applicable to the goods together with penalties determined by directive of the Ministry shall be payable if the compensating products are not re-imported in accordance with Article 66 (3) of this Proclamation.

2/ Without prejudice to provisions of other laws, the exportation or importation of compensating products shall be subject to the payment of duties and taxes applicable to such goods.

3/ Compensating products resulting from the manufacturing, processing or repair of goods temporarily exported pursuant to sub-article (1) or (2) of this Article shall be re-imported within a year from the date of the temporary export of the goods; provided, however, that the Authority may authorize the extension of such period where necessary.

4/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (3) of this Article, the outward processing may be terminated by declaring the goods for outright exportation subject to compliance with the conditions and formalities applicable to the exportation of goods.

2/ Goods may, upon authorization by the Authority after ascertaining that they cannot be repaired at home, be temporarily exported for repairing abroad.
CHAPTER TEN

CUSTOMS PROCEDURE FOR PROCESSING OF IMPORTED GOODS FOR HOME USE UNDER CUSTOMS CONTROL

68. Authorization to Use the Procedure

1/ The Authority may authorize the processing of imported goods, under customs control, before clearance for home use if:

a) the operation allows to ascertain that the products resulting from the processing of goods for home use have been obtained from the imported goods; and

b) the original state of the goods cannot be economically recovered after the processing.

2/ The Authority may grant to a person who carries out regular processing of imported goods for home use, under customs control, general authorization covering his operations.

3/ The categories of goods to which the provisions of sub-article (1) and (2) of this Article may be applied, the requirements to be fulfilled to grant authorization and the measure constituting the customs control shall be specified by directive to be issued by the Authority.

4/ The conditions of authorization of processing of imported goods for home use, under customs control, by a person other than the importer of the goods shall be prescribed by directive to be issued by the Authority.
69. Payment of Duties and Taxes

The products obtained from the processing of imported goods, before clearance for home use, under customs control, shall be liable to the import duties and taxes payable on the raw materials as an input for such products before sale for domestic consumption.

70. Termination of the Procedure

1/ The customs procedure authorized under Article 68 of this Proclamation shall terminate where the raw materials imported under customs control are cleared for home use upon payment of the applicable duties and taxes in accordance with Article 69 of this Proclamation.

2/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article, the customs procedure authorized under Article 69 of this Proclamation shall terminate where the Authority, on the basis of justifiable grounds, authorize the placing of the raw materials imported under another customs procedure, subject to compliance with the conditions and formalities applicable to the later procedure.

CHAPTER ELEVEN
CUSTOMS PROCEDURE FOR TEMPORARY IMPORTATION OR EXPORTATION AND RE-IMPORTATION OR RE-EXPORTATION OF GOODS

71. Temporary Importation

1/ Goods necessary for trade promotion, technology transfer, tourism and cultural exchange, construction works, consultancy services or relief may temporarily be imported, upon the authorization of the Authority and upon furnishing security, without payment of duties and taxes subject to their re-export at the completion of such tasks; provided, however, that spare parts and other consumable goods may not be temporarily imported.
2/ The Ministry may, by directive determine conditions other than those stated under sub article (1) of this Article under which temporary importation of goods without payment of duties and taxes may be permitted.

3/ Temporary importation pursuant to sub-article (1) or (2) of this Article may also be granted for goods already placed under another customs procedure.

4/ It is prohibited to use goods imported on temporary basis other than the purpose for which they are imported; provided, however, that they shall be allowed to undergo operations necessary for their preservation during their stay in the customs territory.

5/ The Authority may permit the transfer of temporarily imported goods for construction works or consultancy services, within the authorized period, to other duty free right holders with respect to similar goods.

6/ Duties and taxes shall be paid on the depreciated values of temporarily imported goods upon their re-exportation based on the tariff currently applicable.

7/ Any person who transfers temporarily imported goods to another person in accordance with sub article (5) of this Article shall have the obligation to pay duties and taxes on the depreciated value of the goods calculated for the period from the date of importation until the date of transfer.

8/ The project owner where temporarily imported goods, without payment of duties and taxes, are deployed shall inform the authority, in writing, the completion of the project, prior to settlement of final payments, or any period of extension of the project.

9/ The conditions under which temporarily imported goods may be allowed to remain at home and the manner of payment of duties and taxes shall be determined by the directive to be issued by Ministry.

72. Refusal of Authorization

1/ The Authority may refuse to authorize the use of temporary importation procedure where it is impossible to identify the goods.

2/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article, the Authority may authorize the use of
73. Time Limit for Temporarily Imported Goods to Stay at Home

CHAPTER TWELVE
COMPLETION OF CUSTOMS PROCEDURE THROUGH ELECTRONIC INFORMATION EXCHANGE SYSTEM

78. General
1/ Any person who is authorized to use the electronic information exchange system developed by the Authority may, electronically:
   a) process and submit reports on the arrival or departure of a means of transport and travellers taken on board or goods loaded;
   b) complete customs formalities;
   c) effect payments; and
   d) receive order of release of goods.

2/ The use of the electronics information exchange system under sub-article (1) of this Article includes the presentation of supporting documents electronically.

3/ The Authority shall facilitate the use of its electronic information exchange system by the relevant government agencies and financial institutions to enable the provision of single window service with respect to the importation and exportation of goods.

79. Registration of Users
Any person interested to secure authorization to use the electronic exchange system of the Authority shall be registered with the Authority upon:

1/ installing an electronic information exchange facility that meet the standard set by the Authority;

2/ assuring compliance with the usage and security requirements of the electronic information exchange system;

3/ confirming that the digital signature may not be used by a person other the authorized person;
80. Sending and Receipt of Electronics Messages

1/ Any information sent through the use of the Authority's electronic information exchange system shall be deemed not to have been sent unless the acknowledgement has been so received within the time agreed upon.

2/ Any electronic information is deemed to be sent if it was sent by the originator or by a person who had the authority to act on behalf of the originator in respect of that communication.

3/ Where the Authority and registered user have not agreed that an acknowledgement of receipt of electronic communication be given in a particular form, an acknowledgement may be given by any communication, or by a conduct sufficient to indicate that the electronic communication is received.

4/ Where the Authority and the registered user have agreed that an electronic communication shall be binding on the receipt of an acknowledgement, such electronic communication shall be deemed not to have been sent unless the acknowledgement has been so received within the time agreed upon.

81. Verification of Electronics Information

The Authority may require the submission of original documents to check the veracity of electronically transmitted information.

82. Use of Paper Documents

1/ Where the user and the Authority cannot send or receive information electronically due to failure of the electronic information exchange system, they may communicate with each other by paper documents.

2/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article, the user shall perform the usual customs procedures electronically when the electronic system works.
83. Suspension of Use Right and Cancelation of Registration

1/ Where any user of the Authority's electronics information exchange system fails to comply with the terms of the agreement entered with the Authority, his use right shall be suspended until he rectifies the irregularities within the period specified by the Authority.

2/ The Authority may cancel the registration of a user of the electronics information exchange system where:

a) it is proved that the registration was based on false information submitted by the user;

b) the user fails to rectify the irregularities caused by violation of customs law or a breach of trust; or

c) the user has been convicted for an offence committed in violation of customs law or a breach of trust;

d) the business of the user ceases operation for any reason.

3/ The Authority shall, before taking an action of suspension of use right or cancelation or registration under this Article, notify the user, in writing, the reasons for taking the action and give him the opportunity to present his opinion.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

SIMPLIFIED CUSTOMS PROCEDURE

84. Authorized Persons

1/ The application of simplified customs procedure shall be allowed for selected and registered persons upon fulfilling criteria specified by the Authority.

2/ The Authority shall give special consideration to exporters and manufacturers in setting the criteria for the selection of authorized persons.

85. Simplified Procedure for Goods Declaration

Simplified procedure for goods declaration may include the following:

www.chilot.me
1/ release of the goods on the provision of the minimum information necessary to identify the goods and permit the subsequent completion of the final goods declaration;

2/ allowing consolidated goods declaration for all imports or exports in a given period where goods are imported or exported frequently by the same person;

3/ allowing the lodgment of goods declaration by means of an entry in the records of the authorized person to be supported subsequently by a supplementary goods declaration.

86. Simplified Procedure for Clearance of Goods

Simplified procedure for clearance of goods shall consist of a procedure that allows the clearance of goods at the declarant's business premises or another place authorized by the Authority.

87. Self-Assessment of Customs Duty and Tax Liabilities

The Authority may allow use of the authorized person's commercial records to self-assess duty and tax liabilities and, where appropriate, to ensure compliance with other customs requirements.

88. Audit Based Customs Control

The Authority shall use audit based customs control to satisfy itself as to the accuracy and authenticity of simplified goods declarations and compliance with other customs requirements through the examination of the relevant books, records, business systems and commercial data held by the authorized persons.

PART FOUR
CUSTOMS DUTIES AND TAXES

CHAPTER ONE
DETERMINATION OF DUTIABLE VALUE

89. Principles

1/ The dutiable value for the purposes of applying the customs tariff and calculating other import charges,
2. The dutiable value for imported goods shall be the actual total cost of the goods up to the first entry point to the customs territory of Ethiopia.

3. The dutiable value for export goods shall be the actual total costs of the goods up to the final exit point from the customs territory of Ethiopia.

4. The Authority shall issue directive on the manner of application of the valuation methods stipulated in this Proclamation, and to prescribe other methods to be applicable in the case where the methods stipulated under this Proclamation could not be applied and be applicable in the case of second hand goods.

5. The Authority shall organize a data base that enables him to determine the duties and taxes of imported goods based on this Proclamation, where the duties and taxes cannot be determined based on transaction value.

90. Transaction Value

1/ The transaction value of imported goods shall be the transaction value that is actually paid or payable for the goods when sold for export to Ethiopia, and adjusted where necessary, as set forth in Article 97 of this Proclamation; provided, however, that:

a) there are no restrictions as to the disposal or use of the goods by the buyer, other than restrictions imposed by law or by particular decisions issued based on such law, a limit in the geographical area in which the goods may be resold or limits that may not substantially affect the value of the goods;

b) the sale or price of the goods is not subject to some conditions or restrictions for which a value cannot be determined;

c) no part of the proceeds of any subsequent resale, disposal or use of the goods by the buyer may accrue directly or indirectly to the seller,

d) where the buyer and seller are related, transaction value shall be considered as the basis for valuation of duty if it is accepted by the Authority.

2/ A buyer and a seller shall be deemed to be related if:

a) one of them is an officer or director of the other’s business;
b) they are legally recognized partners in business;
c) they have employer-employee relationship;
d) one of them directly or indirectly owns, controls or holds 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting stocks or shares of the other’s business;
e) one of them directly or indirectly controls the other;
f) both of them are directly or indirectly controlled by a third party;
g) both of them directly or indirectly control a third party; or
h) they are related by consanguinity or affinity up to the second degree.

3/ Where an examination of the circumstances surrounding a sale between a buyer and a seller who are related shows that the relationship did not influence the price, the transaction value shall be accepted.

4/ Where there are grounds for considering that the relationship of the seller and the buyer influenced the price, the Authority shall communicate same to the importer.

5/ The transaction value of goods in case of a sale between related persons shall be acceptable where the importer can prove that such value closely approximates to:

a) the transaction value in sales, between buyers and sellers who are not related, of identical or similar goods for export to Ethiopia during the same period;
b) the transaction value of identical or similar goods as determined under Article 93 of this Proclamation; or
c) the transaction value of identical or similar goods as determined under Article 94 of this Proclamation.
6/ In applying the tests under sub-article (5) of this Article, due account shall be taken of demonstrated differences in commercial levels, quantity levels the appropriate amount determined pursuant to Article 96 of this Proclamation and costs incurred by the seller in sales in which he and the buyer are not related and where such costs are not incurred by the seller in sales in which he and the buyer are related.

7/ The tests set forth under sub-article (5) of this Article shall be used at the initiative of the importer for comparison purpose.

91. Valuation of Identical Goods

1/ Where the transaction value of imported goods cannot be determined on the basis of Article 90 of this Proclamation, it shall be determined by taking the transaction value of identical goods sold for export to Ethiopia at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantity at or about the same time as the goods being valued.

2/ Where it is impossible to determine the transaction value in accordance with sub-article (1) of this Article, the transaction value of identical goods sold at a different commercial level or in different quantities by making adjustments to take account of differences attributable to the commercial level or to the quantity.

3/ Where the transaction value includes costs referred to in Article 96 (1) of this Proclamation, the adjustment shall take into account the differences in transport, loading, unloading, handling and insurance costs associated with the transport of the imported goods and that of the identical goods to the port of entry into the customs territory which may arise from differences in distance and means of transport.

92. Valuation of Similar Goods

1/ Where the transaction value of imported goods cannot be determined on the basis of Article 90 and Article 91 of this Proclamation, it shall be determined by taking the transaction value of similar goods sold for export to Ethiopia at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantity at or about the same time as the goods being valued.

2/ Where it is impossible to determine the transaction value in accordance with sub-article (1) of this Article, the transaction value of similar goods sold at a different commercial level or in different quantities by making adjustments to take account of differences attributable to the commercial level or to the quantity.

3/ Where the transaction value includes costs referred to in Article 96 (1) of this Proclamation, the adjustment shall take into account the differences in transport, loading, unloading, handling and insurance costs associated with the transport of the imported goods and that of the identical goods to the port of entry into the customs territory which may arise from differences in distance and means of transport.

93. Deductive Value Method

1/ Where the transaction value of imported goods cannot be determined as set forth from Article 90 to Article 92 of this Proclamation, it shall be determined by using the unit price of the imported goods, identical or similar goods imported at or about the same time as the goods being valued and which are sold in Ethiopia in their original state in the greatest aggregate quantity to persons who are not related to the seller; provided, however, that the price shall be reduced by:

a) the amount of commission usually payable or the profit and general expense equal to that usually reflected in sales within Ethiopia of such goods;

b) the usual charges for the transport, insurance and other related costs to be incurred within Ethiopia for the goods; and

c) import duties, taxes and other charges payable with respect to the goods.

2/ In case where the imported goods, identical or similar imported goods are not sold in Ethiopia at or about the same time, as the goods being valued, the customs value to be determined under sub-article (1) of this Article shall be based on the unit price of the identical or similar imported goods which are sold in Ethiopia in their original state within a period having a time difference not longer than three months.

3/ In case where the imported goods and identical or similar imported goods are not sold in their original state, the transaction value to be determined under sub-article (1) of this Article shall be calculated by deducting the additional value resulting from the subsequent processing of the goods.
94. Computed Value Method

1/ Where the transaction value of imported goods cannot be determined as set forth from Article 90 to Article 93 of this Proclamation, it shall be based on a computed value, consisting of the sum of:

a) the cost of manufacturing or processing of the goods;

b) an amount representing the general expenses and profit equal to that usually reflected in the sale of goods of the same class or kind by producers in the country of export; and

c) the transport, loading, unloading, handling and insurance costs associated with the transport of the goods to the port of entry into the customs territory of Ethiopia.

2/ In verifying, with the consent of the manufacturer, data necessary for determining customs value pursuant to the provisions of this Article, the relevant government body of the manufacturer's country shall be informed in advance and shall be ascertained that it does not object to such verification.

95. Fallback Method

1/ Where the transaction value of imported goods cannot be determined under the provisions from Article 90 to Article 94 of this Proclamation, it shall be determined based on the data available in Ethiopia and using equitable methods consistent with the general principles embodied in the provisions of this Proclamation.

2/ The importer shall, when it so requests, be informed, in writing, of the transaction value determined under the provisions of sub-article (1) of this Article and the method used thereto.

96. Costs to be Included in Transaction Value

1/ In determining the customs value of imported goods in accordance with Article 90 of this Proclamation, the following costs shall be added to the price actually paid or payable for the imported goods:

a) expenses incurred by the buyer, and not included in the price actually paid or payable for the goods, in respect of:

(1) commission and brokerage charges except buying commission;

(2) the cost of packages which are treated as integral part, for customs purposes, of the goods;"
(f) \( \text{additional cost of landing, unloading and making } \)\( \text{good ready for use.} \)

(b) \( \text{all charges for intellectual property rights and license fees associated with the transportation} \)

(3) the cost of packing, whether for labor or materials;

(4) the transport, loading, unloading, handling and insurance costs associated with the transportation of the goods to the port of entry of the customs territory;

(5) notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) (a)(4) of this Article where goods are transported by air, one-third of cost paid for air transport;

b) the cost, apportioned as appropriate and where supplied directly or indirectly by the buyer free of charge or at reduced costs for use in the production and sale for export of the imported goods, to the extent that such cost has not been included in the price actually paid or payable, materials, components and similar items, tools, dyes, moulds, casts and similar items, materials consumed in the production of the imported goods and engineering development, art work, design work and plans and sketches undertaken outside Ethiopia and necessary for the production of the imported goods;

c) royalties for intellectual property rights and license fees related to the goods that the buyer is required to pay, either directly or indirectly, as a condition of sale of the goods, to the extent that such royalties and license fees are not included in the price actually paid or payable;

d) the value of any part of the proceeds of any subsequent resale, disposal or use of the goods that accrues directly or indirectly to the seller.

2/ Additions to the price actually paid or payable shall be made under this Article on the basis of objective and quantifiable data.

3/ No additions may be made to the price actually paid or payable in determining the customs value, except as provided in this Article. Such payments may be made directly or indirectly by a letter of credit or any other legally acceptable means of payment.

97. Charges not to be included in Transaction Value

1/ Provided that they are shown separately from the price actually paid or payable, the following may not be included in the transaction value:
1) charges for construction, upgrading, erection, maintenance or technical assistance, which have been undertaken or are to be undertaken after the importation of industrial plants, machinery or equipment;

b) charges for the transport of goods after their introduction into the customs territory;

c) charges for interest under a financial arrangement entered into by the buyer and relating to the purchase of imported goods;

d) buying commissions;

e) duties, taxes and other charges paid in Ethiopia related to importation of the goods.

2/ In determining the transaction value, the following may not be added to the price actually paid or payable:

a) charges for the right to reproduce the imported goods;

b) payments made by the buyer for the right to distribute or resell the imported goods if such payment is not a condition of the sale for export to Ethiopia.

98. Deduction from Transaction Value

The following shall be deducted from the transaction value of imported goods:

1/ costs for damages in routes;

2/ costs for damages in customs warehouse;

3/ the value of dangerous goods destroyed or disposed otherwise.

99. Production of Additional Information and Evidence

1/ Where the Authority has reason to doubt the accuracy of particulars of a declaration or of documents produced in support of a declaration, it may require the declarant to produce further information or evidence that shows the declared transaction value represents the amount actually paid or payable for the imported goods.

2/ Where the Authority, after receiving further information still has reasonable doubts about the accuracy of the declared value or in the absence of a response by the declarant, it may be deemed that the dutiable value of the imported goods cannot be
100. Other Conditions in which Valuation Methods be Applicable

The valuation methods of dutiable stipulated by the provisions of Part Four of this Proclamation shall also be applicable to:

1/ goods that have been released from customs control without paying duties and taxes undergo another customs procedure to pay duties and taxes;

2/ goods which may undergo post customs clearance audit;

3/ the valuation of non-commercial imported goods and temporarily imported goods.

101. Exchange Rate

The customs value of imported or exported goods shall be calculated on the basis of the official exchange rate declared by the National Bank of Ethiopia on the day the goods declaration has been registered.

CHAPTER TWO

TARIFF CLASSIFICATION

102. Principles

1/ Duties on goods imported into the customs territory shall be paid at the rates specified by the Customs Tariff Regulation.

2/ Where classification of goods and drawing up of goods declaration becomes difficult due to a consignment containing goods falling under different tariff classifications, the Ministry may, at the request of the person presenting the declaration, allow that the customs duty for the entire consignment be charged on the basis of the tariff classification of the goods which are subject to the highest rate of customs duty.

3/ Documents prepared by the World Customs Organization in relation to classification of goods shall be taken as conclusive evidence.
103. Binding Information Regarding Tariff Classification

1/ At the request of an importer or his agent, the Authority shall issue binding information in respect of the classification of goods.

2/ The person using information referred to under sub-article (1) of this Article shall be able to prove that the goods declared correspond in every respect to those described in the information previously provided by him to get the binding information.

3/ Binding information regarding tariff classification shall become invalid:

   a) where it is based on inaccurate or incomplete information supplied by the applicant;

   b) where regulations or directives have been changed, and the information no longer conforms to the applicable regulations or directives;

   c) where the binding information was not provided by the competent person;

   d) where the information has been annulled or revoked, and the holder of the information has been notified of such annulment or revocation.

4/ When the situations referred to in sub-article (3) (b) of this Article occur, the information shall become invalid as of the date such regulations or directives become effective.

CHAPTER THREE

ORIGIN OF GOODS

104. Determination of Country of Origin

1/ Where two or more countries are involved in the production of a product, the origin of the product shall be the country in which the last substantial manufacturing or transformation process of economic value took place; provided, however, that such process was carried out in a plant equipped for this purpose and led to a substantial transformation of the product or the creation of a new product altogether.

2/ For the purpose of sub-article (1) of this Article, the criteria for determining country of origin, shall be the following:
1/ operations carried out to ensure that the goods are preserved in good condition during transport or storage;

2/ operations carried out to facilitate transportation of goods;

3/ operations carried out to package or prepare goods for sale;

4/ simple operations on goods such as ventilation, spreading out, drying, cooling, removal of damaged parts, greasing or rust removal, adding a coat of paint to protect against natural elements, washing, cleaning, sifting or screening, sorting or classifying, scaling, testing or calibration, packaging or breaking up of assembled packages or repackaging, dividing the bulks, affixing marks, labels or other distinguishing signs on the packages of goods, dilution by water or any other aqueous solution, ionization, salting, peeling, crushing, removal of seeds from fruits and slaughtering of animals;

5/ simple assembly of parts to constitute a complete product;

6/ any combination of the above.
106. Production of Documents

1/ The Authority may, for the purpose of applying customs law, order the production of documents that show the country of origin of goods.

2/ Where the Authority has doubts as to the authenticity of documents produced pursuant to sub-article (1) of this Article, it may require any additional proof in respect of the country of origin of goods.

107. Origin Marking

1/ The name of the country of origin of imported goods shall be affixed, in English, on each good and the package thereof in a manner that such marking cannot be easily deleted, removed or altered.

2/ Goods that do not meet the requirements under sub-article (1) of this Article shall be returned to the exporting country.

3/ The provisions of sub-article (1) and (2) of this Article may not apply to personal effects not destined for commercial use.

4/ The Authority shall by a directive specify the manner under which the rules of country of origin markings are to be applied.

The rules on preferential origin of goods shall be determined in accordance with rules of country of origin contained in international, regional or bilateral agreements providing for reduction or relief from duties or taxes.

CHAPTER FOUR PAYMENT OF CUSTOMS DUTIES, TAXES AND SERVICE CHARGES

109. Obligation to Pay Customs Duties and Taxes

Unless otherwise provided by law or decided by the Ministry, duties and taxes shall be payable for any imported or exported goods.

110. Liability for Payment of Customs Duties and Taxes

1/ The declarant shall be liable for payment of the duties and taxes imposed on the goods as well as penalties and interests incurred due to default thereof.
2/ Where a customs clearing agent commits fault resulting in non-payment of duties and taxes, he shall be jointly and severally liable with the declarant for payment of the unpaid duties and taxes as well as penalties and interests incurred due to default hereof.

111. Applicable Dates for Assessment and Payment of Customs Duties and Taxes

1/ Unless otherwise provided by this Proclamation or any other law, the duties and taxes on import or export goods shall be assessed on the basis of the law in force on the date of acceptance of the goods declaration or the date of correction under Article 93 of this Proclamation.

2/ Where it is not possible to determine the date of lodging or acceptance of the goods declaration, the duties and taxes shall be assessed on the basis of the law in force on the date determined by the Authority.

3/ Unless the amount of the duties and taxes indicated on the goods declaration is different from the amount obtained through calculation, the declarant shall pay the duties and taxes immediately when informed of such amount by the customs officer.

112. Assessment of Customs Duties and Taxes on the Basis of Advance Information

1/ Duties and taxes may be assessed on the basis of advance information submitted to the Authority by the declarant before the goods enter the customs port.

2/ The duties and taxes assessed on the basis of advance information submitted to the Authority in accordance with sub-article (1) of this Article shall remain valid, even if the amount of duties and taxes is greater than the amount obtained from the assessment made after the goods enter the customs port.

3/ The assessment of duties and taxes made pursuant to this Article may not be valid unless the goods enter the customs port within three months.

113. Correction of Errors

Where the Authority finds an error in the assessment of tax and duties, it shall take the necessary measure to correct the error without prejudice to the legal liability of the person causing the error.
114. Mode of Payment

Payment of duties and taxes shall be in cash or any other legal means of payment.

115. Service Charges

The service charges to be collected by the Authority for services it renders in connection with customs formalities shall be determined by regulation to be issued by the Council of Ministers.

CHAPTER FIVE

SECURITIES TO GUARANTEE PAYMENT OF CUSTOMS DUTIES AND TAXES

116. Furnishing of Security

The Authority may require the provision of security to guarantee the payment of duties and taxes or compliance with the requirements related to a duty and tax exemption privilege.

117. Conditions for Requiring Security

Without prejudice to the generality of Article 116 of this Proclamation and other provisions requiring the furnishing of security, the Authority may require the furnishing of security for the following reasons:

1/ to release goods without the completion of customs formalities when additional time is required to produce complete documents necessary for the completion of customs procedures;

2/ to ensure the re-exportation of goods imported on temporary basis without payment of duties and taxes or, in case of default, to ensure the payment of the duties and taxes;

3/ to ensure that transit goods exit through the approved customs route or arrive at the predetermined customs point of destination;

4/ to ensure the exportation of compensating products obtained from goods imported without payment of duties and taxes for inward processing or, in case of default, to ensure the payment of the duties and taxes;

5/ to release goods without payment of taxes and duties until the dispute between the importer and the Authority on classification or valuation of the goods imported are resolved;
6/ to ensure payment of taxes and duties where deferred payment is allowed.

118. Form of Security

1/ Where a security is required to be furnished pursuant to this Proclamation, such security shall be by cash deposit, bank guarantee, insurance bond or in case of public bodies a written undertaking.

2/ The Authority shall require only one security to be furnished in respect of one payment of duties and taxes and service charges; provided, however, that at the request of the debtor, the Authority may permit comprehensive security to be furnished to cover payments arising from two or more customs operations.

3/ The Authority may authorize the furnishing of the security by a person other than the debtor.

4/ Any person required to furnish a security shall be allowed to choose any form of security prescribed under this Proclamation; provided, however, that the Authority may reject such security where it is incompatible with the applicable customs procedure.

119. Rights and Obligations Related to Security

1/ The Authority may require that the type of security chosen be maintained for a specified period.

2/ Any security shall be extinguished upon the full settlement of the debt. The Authority shall, when requested, issue evidence showing the extinction of the secured debt.

3/ Where the debtor fails to discharge his obligations, the guarantor shall immediately effect the payment.

4/ The guarantor and the debtor shall be jointly and severally liable for the secured amount of debt, including interests and costs incurred.

5/ Where the guarantor fails to effect payment in accordance with sub-article (3) of this Article, the Authority may apply the procedure prescribed under the Income Tax Proclamation to seize the property of the debtor or the guarantor for the payment of the debt.
120. Amount of Security

1/ The amount of security to be furnished pursuant to the provisions of this Proclamation may not be less than the amount of duties, taxes and service charges where such amount can be established with certainty at the time when the security is furnished.

2/ In cases, where the amount of duties, taxes and service charges cannot be established with certainty, the amount of security shall be equal to the maximum amount estimated by the Authority.

3/ Where it is found that the security furnished does not cover the debt due to any cause, the debtor shall furnish additional security or replace the original security with a new one.

CHAPTER SIX

POST-CLEARANCE AUDIT, DIFFERED PAYMENT AND REFUND OF DUTIES AND TAXES

121. Post-Clearance Audit

1/ The Authority may, after the release of goods, undertake post-clearance audit to verify the accuracy of goods declarations through the examination of the books, records, business systems and other relevant customs commercial data held by persons directly or indirectly involved in the import or export of the goods.

2/ The Authority's post-clearance audit may be carried out at the premises of the Authority or the premises of the person who is directly or indirectly involved in the business operations of the import or export of the goods or at the premises of any other person in possession of the data and documents subject to the inspection.

3/ The findings of post-clearance audit, if it reveals that the provisions governing customs formalities have been breached, entails civil or criminal liability or both.

4/ Post clearance audit under this Article may be carried out within five years from the date a goods declaration has been accepted.

5/ Post Clearance Auditors shall have the same power as customs officers as prescribed under this Proclamation.
122. Deferred Payment

1/ Where the post-clearance audit reveals that the duty and tax is not paid or paid in a lesser amount, the Authority may collect the outstanding amount from the declarant within five years from the date of default of such payment.

2/ Where the payment was deferred due to the fault of the declarant, a penalty of 10% and bank interest thereof shall be paid in addition to the duties and taxes.

3/ The amount of interest to be paid under sub-article (2) of this Article shall be calculated at the highest current lending interest rate applied by commercial bank.

4/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub article (2) of this Article, the Authority may exonerate the declarant from penalty except the payment of the duties and taxes with interest where the declarant discloses and consents to pay the deferred amount following the written notification of the audit schedule of the Authority.

5/ Where the person responsible for the payment of the deferred amount of the duties and taxes so requests, on sufficient grounds, the Authority may allow the payment to be effected on instalment basis together with interest thereon.

6/ The seizure procedure prescribed under the Income Tax Proclamation in force shall be applicable to the property of a debtor who has failed to settle the payment of duties and taxes together with the penalty and interest claimed under this Article.

123. Refund of Overcharged Duties and Taxes

1/ Refund of duties and taxes shall be granted if the duties and taxes are overcharged as a result of incorrect commodity classification, tariff setting, valuation or other calculation mistakes.

2/ Claims for refund of duties and taxes under sub-article (1) of this Article shall be considered if it is submitted within one year after the goods are imported or exported upon completion of customs formalities.
124. Refund of Duties and Taxes for Invalidated Goods Declaration

1/ Duties and taxes shall be refunded where:
   a) a goods declaration is cancelled and duties and taxes have been paid; and
   b) an application is submitted by the person concerned within the prescribed period for submission of the application for invalidation of the goods declaration.

2/ Notwithstanding the provision of sub-article (1) of this Article, where there is another appropriate customs procedure requiring the payment of taxes and duties on the same goods, such procedure shall be accomplished instead of refunding taxes and duties.

125. Refund of Duties and Taxes for Deteriorated, Spoiled, Damaged, Destroyed or Short-landed Goods

1/ The duties and taxes which have been paid in respect of goods which have been deteriorated, spoiled, damaged or destroyed during voyage or while under customs control or short-landed shall be refunded proportionately.

2/ The duties and taxes which have been paid in respect of goods which have been short-landed, when compared with the quantity specified in the contract entered by the importer with the seller, shall be refunded.

3/ No refund of duties and taxes may be granted under sub article (1) or (2) of this Article unless the claim is presented within twelve months from the date of payment of the duties and taxes.

126. Remission of Duties and Taxes

1/ Without prejudice to Article 125(1) of this Proclamation the duties and taxes payable in respect of goods which has been damaged or destroyed during voyage or while under customs control shall be remitted.

2/ If the tax is remitted in accordance with sub-article (1) of this Article due to the reason that the goods are damaged by the fault of the importer, the Authority shall dispose or re-export such goods at the expense of the importer.
127. Recovery of Duties and Taxes Refunded or Remitted by Error
Any amount of duties and taxes refunded or remitted by error shall be recovered by the Authority.

128. Set off
The Authority may set off any refund claim against any amount of duties and taxes owed by the claimant.

CHAPTER SEVEN
DUTY AND TAX EXEMPTIONS

129. Granting Duty and Tax Exemptions
Duty and Tax exemptions with respect to import and export goods may be granted by law, international agreement to which Ethiopia is a party or by directive to be issued by the Ministry.

130. Duty and Tax Exempted Imports

1/ It is prohibited to transfer duty and tax exempted imported goods to a person who is not enjoying similar privileges or use them for a purpose other than which the duty free privilege is granted or place them under the possession and service of others, before payment of the duties and taxes applicable to them.

2/ Any duty and tax exempted imported goods may be re-exported or transferred to a person who enjoys similar privilege without payment of duties and taxes or transferred to any person upon payment of the duties and taxes. The duties and taxes shall be calculated at the value of the goods and tariff rates prevailing during the time of disposal.

3/ Where duty and tax exempted imported goods are lost or damaged the importer shall forthwith report to the Authority.

4/ Any person who enjoys duty and tax exemptions privilege for investment purpose shall be required to produce a clearance document from the Authority prior to the transfer of duty and tax exempted imported goods to other persons or the return of his investment permit.
5/ The concerned licensing or registry office shall have the obligation to ascertain the fulfilment of the conditions stated under sub-article (4) of this Article and to inform the Authority in case of conditions that require follow up.

6/ Duty and tax exempted goods can be given as security if an agreement is reached with the Authority as to the payment of duties and taxes.

7/ Government bodies that are registering title to property shall indicate in the title deed that the goods are duty and tax exempt and ensure that the duty and taxes are paid before registering transfer of title.

PART FIVE

OBLIGATIONS RELATED TO CUSTOMS OPERATIONS

131. Obligations of Carrier

1/ Without prejudice to the provisions of Chapter Six of Part Three of this Proclamation, any carrier shall:

a) use authorized customs routes for arrival and departure of the means of transport, for loading and unloading of goods, and for embarkation and disembarkation of travellers;

b) refrain from embarking or disembarking travellers or loading or unloading cargos in the absence of customs officer unless authorized by the Authority;

c) not allow any unauthorized person to approach the means of transport;

d) provide information regarding inflammable or dangerous goods, before they are discharged;

e) provide detailed information regarding the goods loaded, passengers, and goods to be retained on board to the customs officer before the arrival of the carrier;

f) if the carrier is to be delayed after permit is granted to depart shall report the same immediately to the customs officer;
2/ Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (1) (a) of this Article, the carrier may, in case of force majeure, land or stop the means of transport at any place other than a customs port; provided, however, that he shall immediately report the incident to the nearest branch of the Authority or, in the absence of branch of the Authority, to the local administration office.

132. Obligations of Customs Warehouse Permit Holder

Any customs warehouse permit holder shall:

1/ maintain offices, equipments, technological devices and staff necessary for customs operation;

2/ keep registration book in accordance with directive issued by the Authority for the goods deposited in and removed from the warehouse, and report to the Authority from time to time;

3/ segregate goods on the basis of their type and nature for the purpose of their safe storage and convenience for control;

4/ provide proper reply to queries made by customs officer and cooperate for inspection and investigation;

5/ ensure that no goods are deposited in or removed from the warehouse without the permission of the Authority;

6/ secure renewal of his customs warehouse license within the specified time;

7/ prohibit unauthorized persons from entering the customs warehouse;

8/ store goods requiring quarantine examinations, as soon as they are discharged from the means of transport, in a separate zone until completion of the quarantine examination;

9/ pay duties and taxes with respect to goods lost or damaged due to improper handling;

10/ where delivery of goods intended to be deposited in the warehouse has not been effected, report immediately to the Authority the non-receipt of the goods into the warehouse;

11/ in case of temporary customs storage:

a) release goods from the storage upon the completion of customs formalities;

b) report to the Authority the list of those goods deposited for more than the time specified under this Proclamation and transfer them to government customs warehouse;
12/ In case of bonded customs warehouse, furnish security to cover the duties and taxes in a situation where the goods are not used for the authorized purpose.

133. Obligation to Provide Information

1/ Any person who has information about untaxed or less taxed goods in contravention of customs law or about prohibited, restricted or contraband goods shall immediately inform the nearest branch of the Authority or law enforcement body.

2/ The information supplied and the identity of the informant may not be disclosed.

3/ Where the information supplied to the Authority or other law enforcement body pursuant to sub-article (1) of this Article leads to seizure of the goods, all persons that have provided information and support shall be rewarded in accordance with directive issued by the Ministry.

134. Retaining Information

1/ Any person who is responsible to pay duties and taxes and thus possesses any documents or information necessary for customs formalities shall retain them for a period of five years.

2/ The period referred to in sub-article (1) of this Article shall count down from the day on which:

a) goods imported for home use are released for free circulation upon the completion of customs formalities;

b) a goods declaration is accepted for export goods;

c) customs formalities are completed in case of goods imported temporarily on duty free basis.

135. Duty to Cooperate

1/ Any person shall have the duty to cooperate with employees assigned by the Authority in discharging their official duties efficiently.
2/ Federal and regional state organs shall cooperate with the Authority in the fight against contraband.

3/ Where the Authority, in the fight against contraband, encounters circumstances which are beyond its control, it may discharge its duties in collaboration with the federal and regional state law enforcement organs.

4/ Any law enforcement body shall, upon request, assist a customs officer in discharging his duty properly.

5/ The bodies referred to in this Article may use appropriate and proportional force to stop an illegal activity.

PART SIX
CUSTOMS CONTROL AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

CHAPTER ONE
CUSTOMS CONTROL

136. Purpose of Customs Control

The purpose of customs control shall be:
1/ to ensure that duties and taxes are properly collected; and
2/ to prevent, investigate and take, or cause the taking of, appropriate action against breaches of customs law.

137. Application of Customs Control

In taking customs control measures, any customs officer shall confine himself to the forms and extent of measures sufficient for ensuring the observance of customs law.

138. Customs Control on Import, Export and Transit Goods

1/ The following goods shall be placed under customs control:

a) goods imported for home consumption, from the time of their arrival at customs port until the completion of customs formalities and they are released;

b) goods deposited in bonded customs warehouse, from the time they are deposited until they are
139. Customs Border Control

1/ Customs frontier strip and customs crossing shall be used for border crossing or transport of goods only by persons entitled to such activities on the basis of laws or international agreements.

2/ Residents within customs frontier strip shall be entitled to transport goods necessary for their living and work on their property as well as other things stipulated by international agreements.

3/ Doctors, veterinarians, other medical staff and rescue workers residing within customs frontier strip may carry instruments and medications needed for their activities through frontier crossings when approved by the pertinent government body.

140. Customs Ports and Transit Routes

1/ Import, export and transit goods shall enter or exit through prescribed customs ports or customs crossings and be transported through prescribed routes.

2/ Customs ports, customs crossings and transit routes shall be determined by public notice to be issued by the Authority.
141. Measures Taken Under Customs Control

1/ The Authority may, in accordance with conditions laid down by the provisions in force, take any measure it deems necessary to ensure the completion of customs formalities.

2/ Unless otherwise provided by this Proclamation, the Authority shall ensure that goods remain the same in kind, form, quality and in any other respect from their introduction into the customs territory until the completion of customs formalities.

3/ Measures to be taken under customs control shall include:

a) examining, surveillance and safeguarding of goods at customs port, customs station, customs warehouse, transit route or any other place determined by the Authority;

b) re-examination of import or export goods based on information and risk management;

c) certification of exit of export goods;

d) affixing of customs seals, issuance and verifying of customs documents;

e) taking samples, prospectus, photos and other data for the purpose of ascertaining non-alteration in the kind and state of goods;

f) examining luggage and other goods carried by travelers.

4/ Exit certificate of export goods shall be issued pursuant to sub-article (3) (c) of this Article only when the information from the customs officer at the end of the customs checkpoint reach the Authority through its automated information network or delivered in writing through other communication media.

CHAPTER TWO

LAW ENFORCEMENT

142. Power to Search

1/ Where a customs officer has sufficient information or reasonable suspicion to believe the existence of goods in respect of which a customs offence has been committed, he shall have the power to undertake search by stopping any means of transport carrying such goods or by entering into any place where the goods are stored and to seize the goods and the means of transport pursuant to Article 143(1) (a) of this Proclamation.

2/ A customs officer shall, while conducting search pursuant to sub-article (1) of this Article, have the power to remove packages or to open locked goods, except where such goods are sealed by the order of a court.
